The South Africa 3 arrives at a tackle to clear out/ruck the England 12 away from the tackle area. The South Africa 4 also arrives with the same purpose but just after the #3. The South Africa 3's actions are that his right hand and arm lift up the England 12's left leg, with his right leg also leaving the ground. The actions of the South Africa 4 are a "barrel roll" of England 12's torso but rolling underneath him. The South Africa 3 continues his upward motion of the England 12's leg so that the England 12 is above the horizontal. Whilst the England 12's feet are above the horizontal and still in the air, his head and upper body come into contact with the
