- 7.26 bestow honorary life membership of SARU on persons who have rendered exceptional services to, or conferred some special benefit upon, SARU or its predecessors notwithstanding the fact that natural persons cannot become members of SARU in the ordinary course; and,
- 7.27 do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, whether main or ancillary, and to conduct its main business.

8 GOVERNANCE

- 8.1 Subject to this constitution, SARU's business and activities will be overseen by the general meeting which shall have the ultimate authority in respect of, and responsibility for, its affairs.
- 8.2 The general meeting is SARU's highest authority and shall, inter alia, be responsible for –
 - 8.2.1 formulation of guidelines, rules and regulations and policies affecting the terms of engagement of executive committee members, provincial presidents and members;
 - 8.2.2 adoption and amendment of the constitution;
 - 8.2.3 approval of a strategic plan;
 - 8.2.4 approval of the annual budget;
 - 8.2.5 approval or the amendment and rescission of any decision regarding the format, structure, competition rules and composition of SARU's major senior domestic competition currently known as the Currie Cup or its successor as well as determining the SA teams to participate in Super Rugby competitions by special resolution;
 - 8.2.6 adoption of the annual financial statements;
 - 8.2.7 appointment of an auditor;
 - 8.2.8 election of the president and deputy president;
 - 8.2.9 election of the four (4) union representatives as members of the executive council, subject to the provisions of clause 14.3; and

- 8.2.10 The additional SARU representative on World Rugby's council shall be appointed from time to time by the general meeting: Provided that if the additional representative is unable to attend any meeting of the aforesaid council, a replacement shall be appointed by the executive council.
- 8.3 Subject to the provisions of clause 9.7, the general meeting shall appoint the SARU representatives to all other organisations to which SARU is affiliated or with which it is associated.
- 8.4 Subject to this constitution, all of SARU's affairs shall be governed by the executive council which may exercise all such powers and perform all such functions as are not required by this constitution to be exercised or performed by the general meeting: Provided that the general meeting retains the authority to exercise such powers and perform such functions if the executive council is, for whatever reason, unwilling or unable to do so.
- 8.5 Without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, the executive council shall determine a policy framework for, and oversee SARU's governance and exercise the powers and perform the functions necessary to achieve and promote the main and ancillary objects.
- 8.6 A vote of no confidence in writing signed on behalf of at least four (4) members against a person referred to in 14.2.1 – 14.2.4 shall be referred to a general meeting. For this vote of no confidence to be passed, two thirds majority vote by representatives present and voting at a general meeting shall be required for the purpose of this clause - and subject to the rules of natural justice, such person shall vacate his position.
- 8.7 The provisions in the Act and the rules of common law which define the nature and extent of the powers and functions of members of the board of directors of a public company; govern the exercise of their powers and performance of their functions; govern the relationship between such directors and such company, whether fiduciary or otherwise, as well as the personal liability, criminal or delictual, of such members flowing from fraudulent or negligent acts or omissions in relation to such members aforesaid powers and functions, apply mutatis mutandis, and to the extent that it is consistent with SARU's status, to the members of the executive council as if SARU were a public company.
- 8.8 The principles and the best practice recommendations set out in the Code of Governance Principles for South Africa - 2009 King III, as augmented and amended from time to time, shall apply as a guideline to the governance of SARU.

9 MEMBERSHIP OF WORLD RUGBY AND OTHER ORGANISATIONS

- 9.1 SARU is a member of World Rugby, which is managed and controlled by its council on which, in terms of World Rugby's by-laws, SARU is entitled to have three (3) representatives.

- 9.2 One (1) of the three (3) SARU representatives on the council of World Rugby shall be female and one (1) shall be the president. Should any member be unable to attend any meeting of the council, their place may not be substituted.
- 9.3 The additional female representative referred to in clause 9.2 above will be elected by the General Council at the annual general meeting or special general meeting following recommendation from the executive council from a preference of at least two (2) candidates.
- 9.4 SARU's membership of World Rugby shall be effective as an agreement between it and World Rugby to abide by the laws of the game and World Rugby's by-laws, rules and regulations and to accept and enforce all World Rugby's decisions in respect of the playing and administration of rugby throughout the Republic.
- 9.5 SARU shall have the power to determine, introduce and enforce such experimental laws, together with such interpretations and rulings in relation to such experimental laws, as in the discretion of the general meeting will be to the advantage of rugby provided that the approval of World Rugby has been obtained prior to the introduction of such experimental laws, interpretations and rulings.
- 9.6 Such experimental laws, interpretations and rulings in respect thereof as have been approved by World Rugby shall, upon approval, be promulgated by notification in writing to members, or in such other manner as the executive council may direct.
- 9.7 All such experimental laws shall be binding on members.
- 9.8 The executive council shall nominate directors to represent SARU to serve on the Boards of all companies in which SARU has an interest, including SANZAAR, or should SARU cease to be a member of SANZAAR, to such entity as may succeed SANZAAR or have similar objects.

 - 10.1.8 Mpumalanga
 - 10.1.8.1. Mpumalanga Rugby Union
 - 10.1.9 Limpopo
- 10.2 Any association, society or other body of persons which has as its principal object the administration, playing and promotion of the game, or variations thereof, may apply for associate membership, provided that -
- 10.2.1 it is able to show that it enjoys substantial support amongst the players within its area of jurisdiction;
 - 10.2.2 the application for associate membership is proposed by or seconded by the member(s) in whose area(s) of jurisdiction the applicant for associate membership has its seat; and
 - 10.2.3 the applicant for associate membership is seconded by no fewer than two (2) other members.
- 10.3 An application for associate membership may only be considered at an annual general meeting and such membership will be granted to an applicant only if supported by a majority of at least seventy five per cent (75%) of the representatives present and voting.
- 10.4 Before an application for membership is considered at an annual general meeting, SARU may request such particulars as it may, in its discretion, require from an applicant for associate membership and, without detracting from the generality of the foregoing, such requests may include requests for particulars regarding -
- 10.4.1 the areas of jurisdiction of members who may have an interest in the matter;
 - 10.4.2 the number of clubs that may be affected; and

- 10.4.3 particulars of attempts, if any, to apply for 'sub-union' membership of the member in whose area of jurisdiction the applicant for associate membership is seated
- 10.5 SARU and an associate member shall enter into a memorandum of understanding setting out the rights, privileges and obligations of the associate member, which may not include provision for the associate member to submit a motion for the consideration of any of SARU's organs of governance, or to second a motion submitted to any of SARU's organs of governance, or to have a vote at a meeting of any of SARU's organs of governance.
- 10.6 The constitutions, rules, regulations and decisions of members and associate members shall not be inconsistent with those of SARU and, in the event of any such inconsistency, those of SARU shall prevail.
- 10.7 Members and associate members of SARU shall be bound by its constitution, rules regulations and decisions and the agreements entered into by it for the general benefit of the game in the Republic.

11 GENERAL MEETINGS

- 11.1 There shall be at least two (2) general meetings in each calendar year, one (1) of which shall be the annual general meeting.
- 11.2 The other meeting shall be ordinary general meetings of members.
- 11.3 The aforesaid general meetings shall be held at such times and places as may be determined by a general meeting, the executive council or the president: Provided that every general meeting shall, unless otherwise determined by the executive council, be held in Cape Town: Provided further that meetings additional to those referred to in clause 11.1, which shall be regarded as special meetings, may be convened to dispose of business not dealt with at the meeting referred to in 11.1 only within the timeframe described in clause 12.1 at the request of any eight (8) members or by the executive council.
- 11.4 Members shall have two votes each. Each member shall designate two (2) persons to represent them at general meetings of members, one (1) of whom has to be the union's president and/or his deputy president or a designated official,
- 11.4.1 Subject to clause 10.3 above an associate member will be represented by one (1) representative nominated by such associate member.
- 11.4.2 When SARU activates the takeover of the administrative and/or financial affairs of a union as contemplated in clause 28, the voting power of the member in respect of that union is suspended.

A member shall be considered present at any general meeting if at least one (1) representative from each of its constituent unions is present at such meeting.

- 11.6 All members of the executive council shall be entitled to attend general meetings, however, only the president and in his absence, the chairman, as per clause 9, shall be entitled to vote. The remaining members of the executive council shall not have the right to vote. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the president, if presiding, or whosoever is the chairman, shall be entitled to a second vote or casting vote, provided he has used his deliberative vote.
- 11.7 No more than fifteen (15) months shall elapse between the date of one (1) annual general meeting and that of the next, and an annual general meeting shall be held within six (6) months of the end of SARU's financial year.
- 11.8 A delegate who is unable to attend the general meeting due to extraordinary circumstances beyond his control may on the day of the meeting:
- i. appoint a proxy to vote on a specified agenda item or on general agenda items requiring a vote;
 - ii. appoint the proxy through any form of electronic communication that may be conveyed to the members of the meeting.

Prior to voting, the CEO and the chairman of the meeting must verify the appointed proxy which must be approved by the meeting. The company secretary must confirm the extent of the proxy's voting powers and the minutes of the general meeting must clearly reflect the proxy appointment.

12 NOTICE AND AGENDA OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 12.1 An annual general meeting and a special general meeting shall be called by giving not less than twenty-one (21) days' notice in writing and an ordinary general meeting by giving not less than fourteen (14) days' notice in writing.
- 12.2 The notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, the business to be transacted thereat, and, subject to the provisions of clause 26.3, shall enclose copies of the minutes of the preceding annual general meeting of SARU and of any other Special or Ordinary general meetings of SARU held since the last general meeting and shall be given in the manner hereinafter described or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by SARU in any general meeting, to such persons as are, under this constitution, entitled to receive such notices from SARU: Provided that a general meeting shall, notwithstanding the fact that it is called by shorter notice than that prescribed in this constitution, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed, before the meeting, by no fewer than thirteen (13) unions having a right to attend and vote at the meeting or, at the meeting by no fewer than ninety percent (90%) of the representatives entitled to vote at the relevant meeting.
- 12.3 Notice of general meetings must be given by electronic mail, at the head office of the unions.

- 12.4 The unintentional failure to give notice of a general meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not per se invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.
- 12.5 Notice of a motion to consider and to pass with or without modification any resolutions concerning the affairs of SARU, including the right to determine the policy of SARU in this regard, must reach SARU not later than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the meeting at which such motion will be considered, a copy whereof must be submitted to all Members of SARU and to all persons entitled to receive notice and to attend and to vote at general meetings not later than ten (10) days prior to the meeting at which the motion will be considered.
- 12.6 The agenda of the annual general meeting and an ordinary general meeting shall be sent to the members not later than (ten) 10 days prior to the meeting.
- 12.7 Notice of cancellation or postponement of any general meeting shall be given in writing with (three) 3 days' notice before the date of such meeting on the request of the same party/parties that requested the calling of the meeting.

13 PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 13.1 The annual general meeting shall be competent to deal with and dispose of all matters prescribed by this constitution, and any other matters laid before it, including –
 - 13.1.1 adoption of the audited annual financial statements;
 - 13.1.2 election of the president and deputy president when their terms of office have expired or to fill a vacancy;
 - 13.1.3 election of the four (4) additional executive council members when their terms of office have expired or to fill a vacancy;
 - 13.1.4 appointment of an auditor;
 - 13.1.5 approval of the remuneration of the members of the executive council and the auditor;
 - 13.1.6 To consider and to pass, by way of resolution, any motions for consideration concerning the affairs of SARU, including the right to determine the policy of SARU in this regard, of which due and proper notice is given;
 - 13.1.7 To consider and to pass, with or without modification, any resolution adding to, rescinding or amending, any part of the Constitution, of which due and proper notice is given;

- 13.2 SARU's budget for the following year should be considered for approval at the last general meeting to take place in each financial year.
- 13.3 Ordinary general meetings shall be competent to deal with and dispense of all matters prescribed by this constitution with the exception of the matters referred to in clause 13.1 and all other matters reserved by this constitution to be dealt with at annual general meetings: Provided that an ordinary general meeting may fill vacancies of the nature referred to in clauses 13.1.2 and 13.1.3.
- 13.4 General meetings, other than the annual general meeting and special general meetings where vacancies of the nature referred to in clauses 13.1.2 and 13.1.3 are to be filled, may be conducted in person or through electronic communication or one or more of the unions may participate in a meeting by electronic communication, subject to the following:
 - 13.4.1 The notice of the meeting must inform the delegates that the meeting will be conducted electronically or in person;
 - 13.4.2 The delegates must confirm that they will be able to make use of this option;
 - 13.4.3 The company secretary must record the numbers and names of the delegates who will be linked to the meeting electronically and make the relevant arrangements to accommodate them;
 - 13.4.4 The company secretary must confirm the identity of the delegates; and
 - 13.4.5 All delegates must be able to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary.
- 13.5 The only matters that may be dealt with at a special general meeting are the matters that necessitated the calling of that meeting of which notice has to be given in accordance with the provisions of clause 12.1 and such matters may include any matter that may be dealt with and disposed of at ordinary general meetings with the exception of the approval of the budget.
- 13.6 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 13.7 Save as otherwise provided herein, a quorum requires the presence of more than 50% of representatives eligible to vote.
- 13.8 If within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or, if that day is a public holiday, to the next succeeding day other than a public holiday, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, the representatives present shall be a quorum.

- 13.9 The president of SARU, or its deputy president if the president is not available, shall preside at every general meeting: Provided that if there is no president or deputy president, or if at any meeting not one (1) of them is present within fifteen (15) minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairperson, a member of the executive council elected by the members present, or if no member of the executive council is present, or if all the members of the executive council present decline to take the chair, a representative of a member elected by the members present, shall preside as chairperson.
- 13.10 The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- 13.11 Subject to 13.3, any motion put to the vote at any general meeting of SARU shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded by the chairperson or a delegate prior to the resolution being put to the vote.
- 13.12 If a poll is demanded it has to be taken in such manner as the chairperson directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 13.13 The auditors shall count the votes and advise the chairperson of the meeting of the result of the poll and such result shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 13.14 Unless otherwise provided for herein, the adoption of resolutions shall require a majority of the representatives present in person or electronically and voting: Provided that the adoption of special resolutions at special general meetings shall require a majority of seventy-five percent (75%) of the representatives present and voting.
- 13.15 A poll shall be taken forthwith and the demand therefor, which may be withdrawn, shall not prevent the continuation of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question upon which the poll had been demanded.
- 13.16 On a poll, votes must be cast in person by those representing the members including those exercising proxies.
- 13.17 A resolution in writing signed on behalf of all the members, by their presidents and by the president of SARU within fourteen (14) days of the draft resolution having been sent to the members, shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held.

14 EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

- 14.1 SARU shall have an executive council consisting of no more than thirteen (13) members.
- 14.2 Following the commencement of this constitution, the executive council shall consist of –

- 14.2.3 four (4) union representatives elected at an annual general meeting for a period of four (4) years, whereafter they shall be eligible for re-election;
- 14.2.4 four (4) independent members to be elected by the executive council on the strength of their exceptional business, rugby and professional acumen and experience, for a period of two (2) years and who shall be eligible for re-election;
- 14.2.5 a chief executive officer (CEO) appointed by the executive council who shall also be the accounting officer;
- 14.2.6 a chief financial officer appointed by the executive council; and
- 14.2.7 one (1) player representative elected at the annual general meeting or a special general meeting of SARPA.
- 14.3 At any general meeting of the union the election of the persons referred to in clauses 14.2.1 to 14.2.3 shall be done by way of poll.
- 14.4 Notwithstanding the fact that the position of vice president has been removed, the vice president in office at the time of the adoption of this clause will serve the remainder of his term.
- 14.5 To be eligible for election to the executive council for the positions as contemplated in clauses 14.2.1 to 14.2.3 candidates have to be members of their unions' executives or of the board of directors of their unions' commercial arms and must have served as such for more than one (1) year immediately prior to the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place, or have served as a member of the executive council in the positions as contemplated in clauses 14.2.1 to 14.2.3.

Where applicable, a candidate who is elected must resign with immediate effect from such position at his union upon becoming a member of the executive council, failing which, the position on the executive council shall become vacant. Proof of his resignation must be submitted to SARU within three (3) days of the election.

- 14.6 For the purpose of re-election of any member of the executive council, such member shall be considered eligible for the same or any other position on the executive council. It will not be required from a member of the executive council to resign from any position that the member holds on the executive council before the member is re-elected or elected to another position on the executive council.
- 14.7 Any vacancy which occurs in the executive council must be filled by –
- 14.7.1 a general meeting in respect of members serving by virtue of clauses 14.2.1 to 14.2.3;
- 14.7.2 the executive council in respect of members serving by virtue of clauses 14.2.4, 14.2.5 and 14.2.7.
- 14.8 Should a vacancy be filled as contemplated in 14.8.1 above, the elected member(s) shall serve until the expiry of the term of the member whose vacancy is filled.
- 14.9 The president of SARU, or its deputy president if the president is not available, shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of the executive council: Provided that if there is no president or deputy president, or if at any meeting not one (1) of them is present within fifteen (15) minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairperson, a member of the executive council elected by the members present shall preside as chairperson
- 14.10 At the 2018 annual general meeting:
- 14.10.1 the president shall be elected for a term of four (4) years;
- 14.10.2 the deputy-president shall be elected for a term of two (2) years;
- 14.10.3 the four (4) union representatives shall be elected as follows:
- 14.10.3.1 the two (2) current incumbent union representatives holding office will continue to complete the unexpired term of two (2) years;
- 14.10.3.2 the two (2) vacant union representatives shall be elected for a term of four (4) years;
- 14.11 From 2020 positions on the executive council will be filled following the expiry of a member's term of office as contemplated in clause 14.2 above.
- 14.12 Notwithstanding the above, the executive council may co-opt an independent member to serve on the executive council for 2017.

- 14.13 Nominations in writing in writing by members of candidates for the positions on the executive council which have to be filled by an annual general meeting or general meeting must reach SARU not later than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting at which the election is to take place, and such nominations must be accompanied by the nominee's written acceptance of the nomination, an appropriate CV and a written undertaking that he will resign with immediate effect from his unions' executive and/or of the board of directors of his unions' commercial arm upon being elected to the executive council. The nomination must indicate for which positions that have to be filled at the meeting in question, the nominee is nominated: Provided however, that the serving executive council members shall be eligible for re-election without nomination.
- 14.14 Only members in good financial standing with SARU may nominate a person for election. To be in good financial standing, a member must have no monies outstanding or have a prior written agreement with SARU concerning the payment of outstanding monies.
- 14.15 A list containing the nominations with the appropriate CVs must accompany the notice of the annual or other general meeting at which the elections have to take place.

22 OUTSIDE INTERESTS IN MEMBERS AND COMMERCIAL COMPANIES

22.1 No union shall permit any person, club, body corporate, partnership, trust or any other entity (all of which are hereinafter referred to as an entity) or group of entities, acting alone or in concert, directly or indirectly, to acquire an interest of whatever kind in that union without SARU's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld and which consent shall be based on criteria to be determined by the executive council in consultation with the franchise committee from time to time.

A change in the identity of the controlling shareholder of an equity partner that results in an indirect change of control of the commercial entity, shall not require SARU's prior written consent.

22.2 For the purposes of clause 22.1, the concept "interest" is to be widely construed and will include, without limitation, the holding of any number or class of shares or debentures, or any other interest, in a commercial company, but shall not include loans.

22.3 No union shall permit any entity, other than the union itself, acting alone or in concert, to hold or have a beneficial interest of more than seventy four percent (74%) of the issued shares in a commercial company or control, whether by ownership, contract, licence, agency or otherwise, more than seventy four percent (74%) of the voting rights that could be exercised at any general meeting of the shareholders of a commercial company.

22.4 Unions' commercial entities must abide by World Rugby's Bye-Laws and Regulations Relating to the Game; SARU's Constitution, Code of Conduct and Rules and Regulations; and the Rules and Regulations of any rugby entity to which SARU is affiliated.

22.5 No member's commercial entity shall do anything which would impact negatively on the existing relationships between SARU and its stakeholders.

22.6 SARU shall allocate licence agreements only to members of SARU.

23. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH, BREACHING OR CONTRAVENING OF CONSTITUTION BY PROVINCES

23.1 A union, rugby body or person -

23.1.1 which fails to comply with, breaches or contravenes –

23.1.1.1 this constitution, any of SARU's rules, regulations or decisions, or the by-laws, rules or regulations of World Rugby, or any other body of persons or organisation to which SARU is affiliated or associated with in terms of a joint venture agreement or other agreement, including but not limited to, SANZAAR, CAR, or otherwise;

- 23.1.1.2 any decisions taken, any resolutions adopted or rulings made by a general meeting, the executive council, World Rugby or any other body of persons or organisation to which SARU is affiliated or associated with in terms of a joint venture agreement or other agreement, including but not limited to, SANZAAR, CAR, or otherwise;
 - 23.1.1.3 any contract entered into by SARU to which such a province is a party; or
 - 23.1.2 whose action, or lack of action, is detrimental to SARU's interests and those of rugby, shall be guilty of misconduct and subject to sanction by SARU.

- 23.2 The general meeting shall make regulations providing for –
 - 23.2.1 the procedures relating to alleged offences under clause 23.1 and appropriate sanctions for committing such offences;
 - 23.2.2 the appointment, powers and functions of judicial officers or judicial committees to adjudicate on cases of such alleged offences;
 - 23.2.3 the appointment, powers and functions of appeal committees to hear and decide appeals from decisions made by judicial officers and judicial committees; and
 - 23.2.4 the procedures relating to proceedings of judicial officers, judicial committees and appeal committees:

Provided that, unless revised or replaced by the executive council, the rules, regulations, decisions, resolutions or rulings made or taken by SARU and in force at the time of the commencement of this constitution and the codes of conduct, shall be deemed, in all respects, to have been made or taken by the general meeting or the executive council, as the case may be, and any reference therein to the president's council or any committee thereof shall be construed as a reference to the executive council or, if there is one, the appropriate committee thereof: Provided further that judicial officers, judicial committees and appeal committees duly appointed or established by SARU, shall be deemed to have been appointed or established, as the case may be, in terms of this constitution and the same applies, mutatis mutandis, to their proceedings.
- 23.3 Upon finding that an offence in terms of clause 23.1 has been committed, judicial officers, judicial committees and appeal committees shall be entitled to impose such penalties as prescribed by regulation.
- 23.4 Judicial officers, judicial committees and appeal committees shall be entitled to make such orders in relation to costs as may be deemed appropriate.

- 23.5 Any disciplinary proceedings that have been instituted or are underway when this constitution commences, shall be continued with and completed under the authority of this constitution.

24 NEGOTIATION, MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION

- 24.1 In the event of a dispute between members, or between a member or members and SARU, or person(s) and a member(s) or between a person(s) and SARU arising from or in connection with –

24.1.1 this constitution, any of SARU’s rules, regulations or decisions, or by-laws, rules or regulations of World Rugby, or any other body of persons or organisation to which SARU is affiliated or associated with in terms of a joint venture agreement or other agreement, including but not limited to SANZAAR, CAR, or otherwise;

24.1.2 any decisions taken, any resolutions adopted or any rulings made by the general meeting, the executive council, World Rugby or any other body of persons or organisation to which SARU is affiliated or associated with in terms of a joint venture agreement or other agreement, including but not limited to SANZAAR, CAR, or otherwise

24.1.3 any contract entered into or succeeded to by SARU; and 24.1.4 the laws of the game;

the parties concerned must refer any dispute to be resolved by:

- negotiation; failing which
- mediation; failing which
- arbitration

- 24.2 Such a dispute exists once a party notifies the others in writing of the nature of the dispute and requires it to be resolved under this clause. Within ten (10) days of notification, the parties must seek an amicable resolution to the dispute by referring it to designated and authorised representatives of each of the parties to negotiate and resolve it by the parties signing an agreement resolving it within fifteen (15) days.

- 24.3 If negotiation fails, the parties must refer the dispute within ten (10) days for resolution by mediation under the rules of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa (or its successor or body nominated in writing by it in its stead) (“AFSA”).

- 24.4 If mediation fails, the parties must refer the dispute within ten (10) days for resolution by arbitration (including any appeal against the arbitrator’s decision) by an arbitrator, (appointed by agreement between the parties) as an expedited arbitration under the then current rules for expedited arbitration of AFSA. If the parties cannot agree on any arbitrator within a period of ten (10) days after the referral, the arbitrator will be appointed by the Secretariat of AFSA.

The periods for negotiation or mediation or arbitration may be shortened or lengthened by written agreement between the parties.

24.5 This clause will not preclude any party from access to an appropriate court of law for interim relief in respect of urgent matters by way of an interdict, or mandamus pending finalisation of a dispute through this dispute resolution process, for which purpose the parties irrevocably submit the jurisdiction of a decision of the high Court of the Republic of South Africa.

24.6 In the event of any allegations of mismanagement or disputes involving SARU or its members, SARU and its members reserve the right to institute its own internal corrective measures, and exhaust all its internal remedies in this regard prior to any interference of any other appropriate authority with jurisdiction.

25 ACCOUNTING RECORDS

25.1 The executive council shall cause such accounting records to be kept mutatis mutandis as prescribed by section 28 of the Act.

25.2 The accounting records shall be kept at SARU's headquarters or such other place or places as the executive council deems fit, and shall always be open to inspection by the members of the executive council.

25.3 The accounting records, or any of them, shall be open to inspection by members of SARU at all reasonable times and members shall also have the right to inspect any accounting records or documents mutatis mutandis as provided for in the Act.

26 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

26.1 The executive council shall, cause to be prepared and lay before the annual general meeting annual financial statements which comply with the requirements of clauses 26.2 and 26.5.

26.2 SARU's annual financial statements must –

26.2.1 include an auditor's report;

26.2.2 include a report by the executive council with respect to the state of affairs, the business and profit or loss of SARU and the SARU group, including –

26.2.2.1 any matter material for the members of SARU to appreciate the state of affairs of SARU and the SARU group;

- 26.2.2.2 any prescribed information;
- 26.2.3 be recommended for approval by the Annual General Meeting by the executive council and signed by two authorised members of the executive council;
- 26.3 A copy of any annual financial statements, group annual financial statements and group reports which are to be laid before members in an annual general meeting, shall not less than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting be sent to every member.
- 26.4 The executive council shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, management financial statements on a regular basis, copies of which shall be available at SARU's headquarters.
- 26.5 Any financial statements, including any annual financial statements, must –
 - 26.5.1 satisfy the financial reporting standards as to form and content;
 - 26.5.2 present fairly the state of affairs and business of SARU, and explain the transactions and financial position of the business of SARU;
 - 26.5.3 show SARU's assets, liabilities and equity, as well as its income and expenses, and any other prescribed information;
 - 26.5.4 set out the date on which the statements were published, and the accounting period to which the statements apply;

27 NOTICES

- 27.1 A notice may be given by SARU to any member by sending it by electronic mail to such member at its headquarters, or at the address supplied by it to SARU for the giving of notices to it.
- 27.2 Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any aforesaid manner –
 - 27.2.1 to every member of SARU; and,
 - 27.2.2 to the members of the executive council.
- 27.3 The signature to any notice given by SARU may be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed.

28 FINANCIAL AFFAIRS OF UNIONS

- 28.1 All unions have to conduct their business affairs in such a way that, at all times, they are in a sound financial position, comply with the laws of the Republic and adhere to the requirements of good governance inter alia as expounded in the King Report on Governance for South Africa, 2009 (“the King Report”) and the King Code of Governance for South Africa, 2009 (“the King Code”) which came into effect on 1 March 2010, and to ensure that their commercial companies, if any, similarly conduct their business affairs in such a way that, at all times, they are in a sound financial position, comply with the laws of the Republic and be guided by the requirements of good governance inter alia as expounded in the King Report and the King Code.

28.2 Without detracting from the generality of clause 28.1, all unions must ensure that they, and their commercial companies, if any, -

28.2.1 be and remain going concerns as measured by their ability to timeously and fully discharge their debt commitments, both current and long term, with or without the support of third parties;

28.2.2 prepare annual operating and capital expenditure budgets and submit these to their governing bodies for approval prior to the commencement of each financial year, such operating budgets to reflect no worse than a break-even position, provided that budgeted losses and capital expenditure will only be allowed if they can be funded out of existing reserves or affordable borrowings or both;

28.2.3 submit to SARU copies of such annual operating and capital expenditure budgets not later than two (2) months after the commencement of every financial year;

28.2.4 prepare appropriate monthly management financial statements for submission to their governing bodies for consideration and approval on a regular basis;

28.2.5 submit to SARU copies of such management financial statements on a quarterly basis not later than thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter;

28.2.6 prepare annual financial statements and submit these for external audit or independent review within three months of the end of the financial year;

28.2.7 receive unqualified audit or independent review reports and, without detracting from the generality of this requirement, without reportable irregularities; and

28.2.8 submit to SARU copies of their audited or independently reviewed and fully signed annual financial statements for each year, not later than six (6) months after the end of each financial year.

- 28.3 Their sole right to control their assets and dispose of their funds within the terms of their constitutions and in such manner as they may deem fit notwithstanding, unions shall not apply such funds or contribute it for any purpose other than rugby, its administration, development and promotion, except as provided for in this constitution and the rules and regulations made thereunder.
- 28.4 SARU may, in its discretion, conduct or arrange audits of the financial records of unions and unions must ensure that they may likewise conduct or arrange audits of the financial records of their commercial companies, if any, in both instances to ensure that the funds of the relevant union or the relevant commercial company have been applied or contributed solely for the purposes referred to in clause 28.3.
- 28.5 If unions fail to comply with any of the provisions of clauses 28.1 to 28.4 and 28.9 the executive council may, subject to the provisions of clauses 28.7 and 28.8 -
- 28.5.1 suspend all SARU funding;
- 28.5.2 suspend SARU membership;
- 28.5.3 assume responsibility for the affairs of such unions and, without detracting from the generality of the foregoing, such assumption of responsibility for the affairs of unions may include the suspension from office of their elected and/or appointed officials, and the appointment by SARU of administrators, who shall assume all decision-making powers of the unions at both governance and operational levels, and who shall have the authority to direct employees, including chief executive officers, on a day to day basis, such administrators to report and be accountable to and to take direction from the executive council; and
- 28.5.4 any combination of the steps provided for in clauses 28.5.1 to 28.5.3
- 28.6 During this period of suspension of elected and/or appointed officials no formal elections of officials shall take place.
- 28.7 Measures taken pursuant to the provisions of clause 28.5 shall remain in place until such time as the executive council considers the financial affairs of the union concerned to be in order.
- 28.8 Unions which, at the time of commencement of this clause 28, are not compliant in terms of the provisions of clauses 28.1 to 28.3 may be granted, in the discretion of the executive council, a period of grace not exceeding twelve (12) months, in which to get their financial affairs in order to the satisfaction of the executive council, and unions which, at the time of commencement of this clause 28, have yet to secure compliance by their commercial companies, if any, with the provisions of clauses 28.1 to 28.3 may be granted, in the discretion of the executive council, a period of grace not exceeding twelve (12) months, in which to secure such compliance to the satisfaction of the executive council.

- 28.9 Unions must, within sixty (60) days of the commencement of such period of grace in respect of their own compliance with the provisions of clauses 28.1 to 28.3, and in respect of their commercial companies' compliance, submit to SARU a copy of their action plans or those of the commercial companies, including financial projections where necessary, designed to ensure that their financial affairs, or those of their commercial companies, are in order by the end of the period of grace.

29 AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

- 29.1 This constitution shall not be substituted, amended, rescinded or added to except at an annual general meeting or a special general meeting of SARU.
- 29.2 A special resolution supported by at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the representatives at such annual general meeting or special meeting shall be required for the purpose of this clause.
- 29.3 Notice of the intention to amend, rescind or add to the constitution at an annual general meeting must be given in writing by the intending mover thereof (which must be a member of SARU or the executive council), to the CEO not later than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the date fixed for such meeting. These amendments, rescissions or additions, following discussion at subcommittee level (where applicable), will be distributed to all members for comment. SARU shall then give written notice of the intended amendments, rescissions or additions to all members at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the date of the relevant meeting.

If it is required that any such amendments, rescissions or additions be dealt with at a special general meeting of SARU, written notice thereof must be given to the CEO who shall within twenty (20) calendar days of receipt of such notice call a special general meeting of SARU by giving at least twenty one (21) calendar days' written notice thereof and of the intended amendments, rescissions or additions to all members and associate members and all persons entitled to receive notice and to attend such meeting and to vote thereat.

30 NOTICE TO REVIEW OR RESCIND RULINGS BY THE CHAIRPERSON

Notice to review or rescind any ruling of the chairperson at a meeting of the executive council may be given at the meeting at which the ruling was given, or within thirty (30) calendar days thereafter.

31 INDEMNITY AND RATIFICATION

- 31.1 The members of SARU, the executive council, all the committees and members thereof and all the officials and employees of SARU, shall be indemnified from SARU's funds from and against all losses, charges, costs, damages and all and every other expense or liability which they may incur or be put to concerning or about the bona fide execution of their respective duties and actions for and on behalf of SARU.

31.2 None of the aforesaid members, entities, members of such entities, officials and employees shall be held answerable or deemed to be in any way responsible for any act or default of one (1) or the other of them or for any deficiency or insufficiency of any title or security whatsoever taken by SARU; nor shall any of them be liable for any loss occasioned by any banker or other person with whom monies or securities of SARU may be deposited or to whom it may be entrusted for safe custody, invested or otherwise placed; nor for any loss, misfortune or damage which may happen to take place in the execution of their respective offices or duties or as a result thereof.

31.3 Nothing in this constitution shall prevent SARU from ratifying the act of any member of SARU, the executive council, its members, committees and members thereof and any officials and employees of SARU, or from indemnifying any such entities and persons from any particular acts or omissions which might give rise to any liability which by law would otherwise attach to such entity or person in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such entity or person may be guilty in relation to SARU.

32 INTERPRETATION

32.1 The interpretation of this constitution and all rules, regulations and decisions made thereunder is the responsibility of the executive council whose interpretation shall be final and binding on all members unless set aside or varied by an arbitrator appointed in accordance with this constitution or a court having jurisdiction.

32.2 Should the constitution be translated into one or more other languages, the English version shall prevail in the event of any inconsistency between it and any other version thereof.

33 WINDING-UP OR DISSOLUTION

Upon its winding-up or dissolution, SARU's assets remaining after the satisfaction of all its liabilities, shall be given or transferred to some other association or institution having objects similar to its main object, to be determined by its members at or before the time of its winding-up or dissolution or, failing such determination, by a court having jurisdiction.

34 COMMENCEMENT AND REPEAL OF PREVIOUS CONSTITUTION

This constitution commences upon its adoption, or such later date as may be decided upon, and repeals the SARU constitution in force at the time, as of the date of its commencement
