

government communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

RETURN TO PLAY KEY MESSAGES

1. The National State of Disaster has ended, and it's time to go back to the stadiums and support our favourite sport teams.
2. Mzansi! Are you vaccinated?! If yes, purchase your ticket and bring your vaccination certificate or your ID to the stadium.
3. If not, don't worry. The Department of Health has set up pop-up vaccination sites at stadiums for your convenience, all you need is your proof of identity. It is advised that you arrive three hours before kick-off for vaccination. Let the games begin!
4. Let's make our stadiums, cinema safer places to enjoy the games with our friends and loved ones - Vaccinate to save South Africa.

VACCINATED FANS

1. Download YOUR vaccination certificate before coming to the stadium
2. Bring your ID
3. Bring you match ticket- tickets for the Nedbank cup fixtures are available at ticketpro outlets countrywide
4. Booster doses are also available for fans that have received 2 Pfizer doses and the JnJ Vaccine

FANS NOT VACCINATED

1. Arrive early at the stadium
2. Bring your proof of identity (ID, birth certificate, Passport, etc.)
3. Bring your match ticket
4. After vaccinating you will receive your vaccination card which will be required at the gate for you to enter the stadium
5. Register on the electronic vaccination data system (EVDS) to save time
6. Observe yourself for any side effects

FOR ALL FANS

1. Maintain hand hygiene and Sanitise your hands regularly
2. Keep social distance
3. Let's get vaccinated, it is the only way to remain in a viable creative and sporting economy
4. The safe return to stadiums, theatres, cinemas, concerts, is in our hands – let's get vaccinated
5. 'Vaccines are safe, they work, and they're free