MATCH FACTS

- This will be the first ever meeting between the sides in the Telkom Knockout, with their only other cup clash coming when Maritzburg United were still known as Tembisa Classic in the 2006 FA Cup. Classic won 1-0.
- Maritzburg have only ever reached the semi-finals of the Telkom Knockout once, in 2012, when they lost 3-0 Orlando Pirates. They secured a 2-0 win over Mamelodi Sundowns in the quarterfinals that year. They also made the quarterfinals in 2012 and 2015, but lost to SuperSport United and Pirates respectively.
- Wits have played in nine Telkom Knockout quarterfinals in the PSL era, winning five and losing four. Last year they beat Baroka FC 1-0 at this stage on their way to lifting the trophy.
- Maritzburg have only scored in two of their last 11 Telkom Knockout fixtures, that being in a 2-1 win over Jomo Cosmos in 2015 and a 2-1 win over Highlands Park in the first round this year.
- Maritzburg have played 16 matches in the Telkom Knockout competition in the past, recording four wins, three draws and nine defeats. They have been outscored by their opponents 11-20.
- These two sides have already met in the league this season, with the teams playing to a 0-0 draw at the Harry Gwala Stadium on September 15. That is part of a run that has seen Maritzburg fail to score in seven of their 10 matches so far this season in all competitions.
- In fact, only four players have got on the scoresheet for The Team of Choice - Keletso Makgalwa, Bandile Shandu, Sipehele Ndlovu and Mohau Mokate – in 16 hours of football this season!
- There have been 24 previous meetings between these sides in all competitions, with Wits victorious in 11 of those to go with four wins for Maritzburg (one as Tembisa Classic) and nine draws. Wits lead the scoring stakes 31-18.
- In matches played at Maritzburg, Wits still lead the head-to-head with four wins to one and seven draws. Wits have outscored their opponents 14-10.
- Maritzburg's only ever home win over Wits came all the way back in 2009 when they claimed a 2-1 league success.
- Two of the last three games, both at Maritzburg, have ended in 0-0 draws.

TOURNAMENT FACTS

- The Telkom Knockout was first played in 1982 as the Datsun Challenge, with the inaugural winners being Arcadia Shepherds, who defeated Highlands Park 2-0 in a replay after their initial match had finished 1-1.
- Kaizer Chiefs are the most successful club in the tournament's history, winning 13 of their 17 finals to date. They have appeared in almost half of the 36 finals played.
- Orlando Pirates by contrast have a poor record in the competition, reaching eight finals and winning just one (2011). They have appeared in four of the last eight deciders, but their 2011 effort against BidVest Wits (3-1) was their only success.
- After Kaizer Chiefs, the next highest number of tournament wins is three, with Mamelodi Sundowns having reached that mark in their 2015 victory and defending champions BidVest Wits notched their third in 2017. Ajax Cape Town, Jomo Cosmos, the now defunct Platinum Stars and Umtata Bush Bucks each have two wins.
- Since Telkom took over their sponsorship of the tournament in 2006, there have been nine different winners – Kaizer Chiefs (three titles), Platinum Stars (two), Ajax Cape Town, Orlando Pirates, Bloemfontein Celtic, SuperSport United, Mamelodi Sundowns, Cape Town City and BidVest Wits.
- There have also been eight losing finalists – Orlando Pirates (three times), Mamelodi Sundowns (two), Ajax Cape Town (two), BidVest Wits, Platinum Stars, Kaizer Chiefs, SuperSport United and Bloemfontein Celtic.
- The biggest winning margin in a Telkom Knockout competition final was 5-0 when Kaizer Chiefs defeated Jomo Cosmos in 2001.
- Since Telkom took over sponsorship of the competition in 2006, the 12 finals have been played at 10 different venues:
 - 2006/07 – Lucas Moripe Stadium, Atteridgeville
 - 2007/08 – Loftus Versfeld Stadium, Pretoria
 - 2008/09 – Chatsworth Stadium, Durban
 - 2009/10 – King's Park Stadium, Durban
 - 2010/11 – FNB Stadium, Soweto
